The County of El Dorado is recruiting applicants for Human Resources Technician. This recruitment will establish a list to fill current and future full time, part-time and extra help vacancies for at least three (3) months. If you are interested in the position of Human Resources Technician within any County department, please submit your application. We currently have the following vacancies:

- Two (2) full-time vacancies in the Human Resources Department, one (1) in the Recruitment and Selection Unit and one (1) in the Benefits and Leaves Unit located in Placerville.

A scored evaluation of training and experience, based upon your application and responses to supplemental questions, will determine your ranking for referral to the hiring department.

Supplemental questions play an integral role in the evaluation of your qualifications. Please take the time to provide thoughtful and thorough responses. The information you provide will be used to determine your ranking for a referral to specific vacancies. All work experience that is described or included in your response(s) MUST be included in the "Work Experience" section of your application. Do not refer to a resume or other documentation.

DEFINITION

Under direction, performs a variety of responsible paraprofessional, technical, and administrative human resources support duties requiring the application of procedural, program, and compliance knowledge; assists with recruitment, testing, and selection of staff; processes personnel transactions and leave requests as well as insurance and benefit documents; coordinates and/or conducts employee training and orientations; prepares, reviews, and distributes Human Resources Information System records; and performs related duties as assigned.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Receives direction from assigned supervisory or management personnel. Exercises no direct supervision over staff.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is a fully qualified, journey-level paraprofessional classification. Incumbents exercise a high level of tact, discretion, diplomacy, and independent judgment to perform the full scope of duties which include technical to basic analytical duties. The work has both technical and procedural aspects, requiring an incumbent to interpret, apply, and ensure compliance with established regulations, requirements, policies, and procedures. Duties require frequent contact with staff and the public as well as attention to detail. Work may emphasize one or several of the following functional areas: recruitment, testing, selection, processing personnel transactions, leave management, insurance/benefit programs, and employee training and orientation. An incumbent receives only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies of the work unit.

This class is distinguished from the Human Resources Analyst class series in that the latter are professional-level classes performing professional and analytical work in support of one or more assigned human resources functional areas.
